UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET.
Governor.....Gen. JOHN W. GEARY.
Supreme Judge.....Hon. HENRY WILLIAMS.

REPUBLICAN CO. CONVENTION.

The Union Republican voters of Cambria county are hereby requested to meet at the usual places for holding the elections in their respective wards and districts on SATURDAY, the 21st day of AUGUST, and between the hours of 1 o'clock, and 7 o'clock, p. m., elect two delegates for each election district to represent them in a County Convention to be held on Tuesday, the 24th day of August, at the Court House, in Ebensburg; at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of taking such action in the coming election as the interests of the party and the good of our country demand. ALEX. KENNEDY, Chairman.
Aug. 5, 1889.

Volume 10.

The present is the first number of Volume 10 of The Alleghenian. We begin the new volume with a subscription list increased about one-third over what it was one year ago. While we thank our friends for this marked increase of patronage, we would yet say that we have still room on our books for many more new subscribers. We ardently desire during the current year to run up our list in round numbers to one thousand, and if our good friends will continue their efforts in our behalf, we can do it. One word more: A considerable amount of money, ranging in sums of from two to five dollars, is due us on the expired volume. We trust this will be promptly paid, and not only that, but that one and all will pay their subscription for this volume in advance. WE NEED THE MONEY!

The Chinese Emigration.

The Chinese emigration to this country, commonly designated as the Chinese question, is a many-sided question, and is eliciting very considerable comment. It has good phases, as well as phases which, to say the least, are counter to our prejudices. First of all they are heathen.

Next, they know nothing of our language. Next, their characters are commonly supposed to have been moulded by institutions, customs, and manners at war with our plan of government, our customs, and manners.

Next, they are put down by our wise men as an inferior or "passive" race.

Next, they work cheap, and threaten in the eyes of some the degradation of American labor.

We propose to consider these phases, not learnedly, not profoundly, but plainly and in the light of common sense.

As to the first phase, we say, "Rejoice, O ye missionaries, and come home by way of the Central and Union Pacific Railroad, for the naughty heathen to whom you were sent have come home to us!" If it is good to send missionaries for their conversion, it is better for them to come to those who sent the missionaries. It is little matter that there is one more heathen temple in America when there is one less in China. Of all men and corporate bodies, the missionaries and their friends, the churches, ought to throw up their hats, if the latter have any, at this turn in affairs.

The second, the third, and the fourth phases have their force from the fact that these children of the Orient will be a new element in politics and in society, and hence may be considered together.

As to knowing nothing of our language, they are, in that respect, in a condition precisely similar to thousands of other emigrants. We do not see that it is worse for a Chinaman to be ignorant of our language than for a person of some other nationality to be equally ignorant. They are fully as quick to learn as other people.

Beauty and perfection of work done as fluently as the finest of machinery. Using both threads directly from the spools. No fastening of seams by hand and no waste of thread. Wide range of application without change of adjustment. The seam retains its beauty and firmness after washing and ironing. Besides doing all kinds of work done by other Sewing Machines, these Machines execute the most beautiful and permanent embroidery and ornamental work.

The highest premiums at all the fairs and exhibitions of the United States and Europe, have been awarded the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, and the work done by them, wherever exhibited in competition.

The very highest prize, THE CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR, was conferred on the representative of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, at the Exposition Universelle, Paris, 1887, thus attesting their great superiority over all other Sewing Machines.

He esteems it necessary that his bones should be laid along with his father's when he, also, shall shuffle off the mortal coil. He deems this necessary in order that the spirit of his father may pass from him, or rather through him, in an unbroken line, to his children. Hence, say many, he will never remain permanently among us. But there is no "hence" about it. The dead of 60,000 Chinamen may be transported from the Pacific coast to their native land, but the dead of 600,000 Chinamen, scattered from California to the West, the Southwest, and the Middle States may not. The gods will rather be reconciled to emigrate to the new world. If the dead refuse to go to them, they will come to the dead. Confucius and Christ will be brought together. Why should we falter?

But they will cheapen labor. Well, suppose they do. If by any means they teach the American artisan and laborer a greater frugality, they will confer a benefit not easily repaid. But we do not apprehend such a cheapening of labor as will prove injurious. With us, labor is the scarcest and dearest of all commodities. Their presence will enable us to pursue industries which now we cannot pursue, and thus they will open wider fields and greater demands for skilled labor than has hitherto been contemplated. Our laborers may be crowded out of their present fields, but they will be crowded into richer pastures.

Resolution Seven.

The Democratic platform of Pennsylvania contains the following plank:

Seventh. That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory, must be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

This resolution, of course, applies as well to Cambria county as the balance of the State.

Who among our readers does not remember the attitude of the Cambria county Democracy toward the soldiers and sailors of the Union during the war? They opposed the war. They branded our soldiers and sailors who were engaged in it with opprobrious epithets, such as "Lincoln's hirelings," "dogs," "murderers," &c. They resisted every draft made to replenish their decimated ranks. They preached "no coercion," and favored an abandonment of hostilities. They scowled when our arms were victorious, and wreathed their faces in sweetest smiles when fortune favored the rebels. They voted, one and all, against giving soldiers the right of suffrage. In a word, they were opposed to the soldier and the cause for which he fought, first, last, and all the time.

Resolution Seven may possibly do for some counties in the State, but it will not suit Cambria county. The Democracy here, judging them by their past record, have no desire to "gratefully remember" the soldiers and sailors who "carried the flag of our country to victory."

Who is William Mutchler, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee? We propounded this question a couple of weeks ago, and even our widely-informed neighbor of the Freeman was unable, of himself, to answer it. But the Freeman has succeeded in discovering that the Eastern Express knows who Mutchler is. As matter of general information, we condense what the Express says of him: He lives in Easton; is a democrat; is a lawyer by profession; possesses rare executive abilities; is a shrewd politician; is a genial, whole-souled gentleman; and—last and best—is an "honest man." We take especial pleasure in quoting the last named attribute of the new Chairman, for it is the first time within the memory of the oldest inhabitant that a man of that reputation has been placed at the head of the State Democracy. The Democracy of Cambria county will also be glad to know that Mutchler is an "honest man," for it will give them assurance that they will receive their fair pro rata share of Packer's greenbacks when the grand distribution thereof shall come off.

To be killed in battle and have your name spelled wrong in the register, is said to be fame. Our able and amiable fellow townsman, Robert L. Johnston, Esq., has lately achieved a large share of this peculiar species of fame. He wrote a long and labored article to the Harrisburg Patriot, explanatory of who Hon. C. L. Pershing is, what he is, and where he is, with some reasons annexed why that gentleman ought to be elected Judge of the Supreme Court next October. The article was garnished with a profusion of big type, and was accorded a prominent position in that journal. But when the Patriot came to speak editorially of the communication, it distinctly attributed its authorship to Richard L. Johnston, Esq. This recalls to our mind an incident we read some time ago. The poet Longfellow happened to fall in company with an inquisitive fellow, who asked him his name. "Longfellow," was the reply. "Ah!"—a pause—then—"any relation of the Longfellow of H-boken?" Such, in either case, is fame!

GEN. ROBERTSON positively declines to be a victim, and will not run on the Democratic ticket for Governor of Ohio. Geo. H. Pendleton is used to being set up to be knocked down, and has consented to receive the 60,000-votes-less-than-enough-to-elect of the Democracy for the position.

WILL the Freeman be honest enough to inform its readers that the present of a tract of land in New Jersey to General Grant by an admirer was peremptorily declined?

OUR Republican friends will please bear in mind that our County Convention meets here on Tuesday, 24th inst.—not on Monday, heretofore the usual day.

"WHO IN H IS ASA PACKER?"—The Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania gets the following "first rate notice" in the Hartford Post:

A little more than a year ago, in the sweltering heat of purgatorial Tammany, we first heard of Asa Packer. The full-blown Perrin was calling the roll of States. Mr. Eaton, on behalf of "the sterling and gallant Democracy of my little Commonwealth," had named the Hon. James E. English as a candidate for the Presidency. Ohio had named Pendleton, the serene Tilden had broached the best butt of the season in Sanford E. Church, New Jersey had set up Joel Packer, and Pennsylvania was called. At once there rose upon the damp vision of that reeking auditor, a human form with both hands full of manuscript. It was not the "ancient mariner," nor did he "fix" anybody "with his glittering eyes." It was Judge Woodward of Pennsylvania; and he "fixed" the whole crowd with one of most dismal obituaries that ever followed a politician home—Judge Woodward read his whole heap of manuscript through. He described his man before he named him. Twenty minutes' description—think of it—in manuscript read slowly and deliberately—intoned at that—to an audience of seven or eight thousand—all a rivulet of perspiration—all impatient for a ballot—in an atmosphere blue with blasphemy and reeking with rum—just think of that man standing on a bench in Tammany Hall, amid such surroundings, drenched in his own sweat, reeling off a couple of columns of biographical stuff, and tying on the end of it all "the name of Asa Packer of Pennsylvania." It was two miles of slow match to one fire-cracker—poor fire-cracker at that. When he concluded, there did not arise

"So wild a yell
As all the fiends from Heaven that fell
Had raised the banner cry of hell!"

No, there did not. It was too warm to yell—for Asa Packer; so nobody yelled. A few smiled—some in their seats—others at neighboring bars. It pains us to say, that in the buzz that went around all the reporters' tables when the gifted Woodward sat down, the only clearly distinguishable sentence was the conundrum that leaped with a very large H, from desk to desk, "Who in H is Asa Packer?"

THE GAME LAWS.—We published the revised game laws of Pennsylvania a few months ago. We find the following epitome of them in one of our exchanges, and reprint it for the benefit of sportsmen and others interested in the protection of game:

Deer cannot be killed or taken except from the 1st of September till the 31st of December.

Grouse or pheasants can only be shot from the 1st of August to the 20th of December.

Partridges can only be killed from the 1st of October to the 20th of December.

Wild turkeys can be hunted from the 1st of October to the 1st of January.

Squirrels and rabbits may be shot from the 1st of August to the 1st of January.

Woodcock from 4th of July to the 15th of November.

Insectivorous birds, which include the robins, are prohibited to be shot at any time, and it is illegal to rob the nests of any birds of any kind.

Trout can be fished for, with hook and line only, during the months of April, May, June and July.

Sunday shooting or hunting is prohibited under a heavy penalty.

Traps, blinds, snares, &c., are entirely prohibited.

Possession of fish or other game out of season, is sufficient to convict the party, even if they were purchased.

The penalties vary from $5 to $50.

One half the fine goes to the informer, and any one convicted and refusing to pay the fine goes to jail for ten days.

THE Republicans of Blair county have nominated the following ticket: Hon. Joseph Robison for Assembly; Jacob Walker for County Commissioner; Jacob H. Stiffer for Director of the Poor, and Wm. H. Calvert for County Auditor.

The Republicans of Huntingdon county have nominated the following ticket: For Assembly, J. N. Swope; District Attorney, Milton S. Lytle; Prothonotary, F. S. Fouse; Register and Recorder, J. E. Smucker; Treasurer, W. W. Williamson.

THE National debt, during the last month, was reduced Seven Millions Four Hundred Thousand Dollars. The total reduction of the debt since Grant's inauguration—a little over five months—is about Forty Four Millions of Dollars. These figures, while they operate as a death-knell to the despairing hopes of the Democracy, knocking the props from under them and destroying all their argument, speak volumes in favor of a Republican administration.

A GOOD ONE.—We heard a good one the other day, says the Huntingdon Globe, and we will tell it as it was told us. Perhaps our readers will remember that Bill Wallace has a weakness for coffee pots and coffee colored naturalization papers. Well, a short time ago, Coffee-Pot Bill and Beef Bill (Ligler) arranged matters to travel through Clearfield county on an electioneering tour, merely by way a little relaxation, of course. Their mode of conveyance was a carriage. Before starting a wag found out the intention of these "disinterested patriots," and tied an old coffee pot to the running gears of their carriage. They traveled over a greater portion of the county, lugging the old coffee pot with them, until some kind friend called their attention to it and wanted to know what it meant. Well, it is said that the scene that took place there and then was awful to behold. Sir Williams ranted and foamed at the mouth, clenched his fists, gritted his teeth and ruthlessly tore the coffee pot from its resting place and dashed it to the ground. The Ex-Governor heaped curses loud and long upon the head of the practical joker, and swore that if there was any virtue in "eternal vigilance," he would bring the infamous scoundrel to grief, if it cost him the "price of liberty."

NEW YORK CLOTHING HOUSE.—Did you ever visit this establishment? It is under the Opera House, Main St., Johnstown. L. Cohen & Bro. are the proprietors. They sell fashionable clothing, hats, caps, gentlemen's goods, &c. We have been in the establishment and priced many of the goods. As to the establishment, it is one of the most complete in all its appointments we have ever seen, while the prices exactly suit the times. Do not fail to give them a call when opportunity offers.

HOW TO BE A WOMAN OF FASHION.—A late writer thus describes it: "Buy everything you don't want, and pay for nothing you get; smile on all mankind but your husband; be happy everywhere but at home." This is all a mistake. The true woman of fashion is the one that buys only what she wants, buys it at L. Mayer's, Johnstown, and pays as she goes. Then her own happiness and the happiness of those around her are assured.

HARVEST.—Though the harvest season is about over, we know of no more timely advice to give our readers than this—"Make hay while the sun shines." And we know of no more appropriate way of following this advice than for them to go to Y. S. Barker's and buy what they need for self and family while his extraordinarily low schedule of prices obtains. It will not last long.

BUY FROM FRY.—Miss Susan Sly said, with a sigh, she really didn't know why 'twas the case her handsome face never brought to her a beau. "Miss Susan Sly," a friend said, nigh, "the reason I'll unfold: your dress and shawl and bonnet, all their style and make are old." Then Susan Sly flew to one Fry, who keeps a fancy store—a trousseau bought—a gay "red-hot"—her beaux are now a score.

BIGGEST, BEST, CHEAPEST.—George Huntley has acknowledged the biggest hardware store in the county. He has also the best stock to be found outside the large cities. A trial will convince one and all that he sells everything, from a penknife to a mowing machine, at the very lowest margin of profit. Cash customers can always get a bargain from him.

FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND.—We are coming, Father Abraham, with four hundred thousand more. More what? Why, barrels of flour, sugar and molasses candy—every one of them to be left at H. A. Shoemaker & Co.'s in Ebensburg.

Flour for the great,
Flour for the tall,
Flour in barrels and sacks,
And flour by the small.

THE TELEGRAPH.—When the much desired event of the completion of our telegraph shall have arrived, it is arranged that the following shall be the initial telegram sent over the wires:

"To all the world—

"Know ye that M. L. Oatman, Ebensburg, sells the best flour, more of it, and cheaper, than any other dealer in Cambria county, 'Vox Populi!'"

A. A. BARKER & SON.—

Receive new goods
Every week.
Seasonable, fresh, cheap,
Large stock
This day opened out.
Come and see!
A bargain for you—and you!

BIG THINGS.—Johnstown has water works, gas works, a steam fire engine, a rolling mill, a District Court, two Banks, &c., but among the greatest of her institutions may be reckoned her Oak Hall Clothing Store—E. Leopold & Bro.—where may be bought ready-made clothing at prices which put to blush those even of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

EASTWARD HO!—Westward the course of empire takes its way, but eastward the course of buyers seeking cheap goods takes its way. And no wonder; for R. R. Davis, in the East Ward, keeps a very large and attractive stock of goods always on hand, the which he sells at prices which defy competition.

NEW LIVERY AND SALE STABLE.—

The subscribers would respectfully announce that they have opened a first class Livery and Sale Stable, at the stables formerly occupied by G. Gibson, Esq., on street one square north of "Diamond."

Our horses have been carefully selected with a view to safety, endurance, beauty and speed. Our saddles, harness, wagons, barouches, and carriages are new and of late styles.

Horses bought and sold on commission. A register will be kept in the office, and farmers and others, having stock to dispose of are invited, free of charge, to record the same therein.

Careful hostlers always in attendance. We hope to merit a liberal share of public patronage.
